Denver, Colo., Oct. 8. — Blaming his change of mind on premature publicity, Gov. Carlson announced today that he would not extend general amnesty to the former strikers indicted in connection with fatal riots during recent Colorado labor war. Industrial peace is not worth such a price, Carlson declared, emphasizing that he was elected on a law and order plank.

Labor leaders, bitterly disappointed by the announcement, said it was significant that Carlson's change about followed the state supreme court's action in releasing John R. Lawson, the strike leader, on $35,000 bail. Carlson attacked the supreme court when it disqualified Judge Granby Hillyer from further trying strike cases.

Lawson will ultimately go free. Life sentence of strike leader in Trinidad jail, awaiting outcome of his appeal, will be reversed by supreme court of Colorado it was learned on highest authority.

BANDITS PULL OFF REGULAR WESTERN TRAIN ROBBERY

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 7.—Two bandits, aided by a third who helped in the "getaway," held up and robbed Baltimore train No. 1, bound for Cincinnati and St. Louis at Central, W. Va., sixty miles from here early today. They got all the registered mail.

It was reported that the express car of the train carried several hundred thousand dollars' worth of unsigned currency which, however, the robbers did not touch. Another report was that ninety packages of money being shipped to western banks was taken.

The masked robbers climbed on the coal car when the train stopped for water at Central. They ordered the train stopped near Central, forced the engineer to uncouple the engine, mail and express cars. The two bandits, with the engineer, then drove the uncoupled cars several miles distant.

The unsigned currency to western banks was said to amount to several hundred thousand dollars. First reports said a million dollars. It was mostly in five, tens and twenties.

The money, it was explained, would be national bank notes, intended to be signed by the national banks to whom consigned. The loss probably would be the government's, since all banks take out insurance with the government on shipments of bank notes.

CHICAGO GRAIN.—Grain down. Provisions steady. Dec. wheat close, $1.01½.

NEW YORK STOCKS.—Bethlehem and Crucible Steel headed advance. Other war stocks steady.
